PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The complainant states that Daniel SANCHEZ-Rangel, Patricia JIMENEZ-Hernandez and Maria Carmen TINOCO-Corona are citizens of a country other than the United States; that said aliens have admitted they are deportable; that their testimony is material; that it is impracticable to secure their attendance at trial by subpoena; and that they are material witnesses in relation to this criminal charge and should be held or admitted to bail pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3144.

On April 8, 2008, at approximately 0506 hours, James Claude MCCLUNG (Defendant) made application for admission into the United States from Mexico at the San Ysidro, California Port of Entry via the vehicle primary lanes. Defendant was the driver and sole visible occupant of a stolen white Ford F-350 pick-up truck. Upon inspection before a Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officer, Defendant presented his valid United States Passport and California driver license. The CBP officer conducted an inspection of the vehicle and noticed the leg of a person concealed under the front bench seat of the vehicle. The vehicle and its occupants were subsequently escorted to secondary for further inspection.

In secondary, CBP Officers discovered three individuals concealed within the front and rear seats of the vehicle. Both seats had been altered and raised to create a special compartment to conceal the three individuals. The concealed individuals were identified as citizens of Mexico without entitlements to enter the United States and are now identified as Daniel SANCHEZ-Rangel (MW1), Patricia JIMENEZ-Hernandez (MW2) and Maria Carmen TINOCO-Corona (MW3).

During a videotaped interview, Defendant was advised of his Miranda rights. Defendant acknowledged his rights and elected to answer questions without an attorney present. Defendant admitted knowledge of the three aliens concealed in compartments located under the front and rear seats of the vehicle. Defendant admitted he was going to receive approximately $1000.00 USD for smuggling the three aliens and was to deliver them to a McDonald's restaurant in San Diego, California.

On separate videotaped interviews, all three material witnesses admitted they are citizens of Mexico without legal rights to enter the United States. MW1 stated he was going to pay $4,000 USD to be smuggled into the United States. MW2 and MW3 stated they were going to pay an unknown amount for to be smuggled into the United States. All three material witnesses stated they were going to Fresno, California.
